

QUALITY/APPLICATION ENGINEER WANTED

JOB SUMMARY

The Quality/Application Engineer primary focus will be to support Quality Management Systems efforts to increase the overall satisfaction of our customers by eliminating process variation while maximizing process efficiency to reduce cost. This position will be based in our Charlotte, NC headquarters and will involve limited travel. The ideal candidate will have an engineering degree and must be fully vaccinated for COVID-19.

MAJOR DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

- ISO – Coordinate and execute re-certification and internal audits.
- PPAP/IMDS Coordinator – Liaison between suppliers and customers in approval process.
- Assist customers with design and application issues.
- Testing products where required – in house and liaison for out-sourced testing.
- Available for on-site visits to customers with Sales team.
- Available for on-site visits to suppliers, when necessary.
- Host any customer internal audits in CLT or on-site at branch, as needed.
- Available for any quality related customer issue. Liaison between Sales / Purchasing / Supplier / Customer, as needed. Responsible for Corrective Action reporting.
- Coordinate in-house and customer education on product knowledge and basic product inspection procedures.
- Drawing review.
- Implement and maintain drawing data base for target customers.
- Review Engineering and Quality requirements for new customers.

About Fastener Supply Company:

Founded in 1959, Fastener Supply Company is a privately owned fastener company that specializes in providing custom programs and fastening solutions to the OEM marketplace. We are highly recognized in the fastener industry and service a large number of customers in a wide variety of industries nationwide. We have a physical presence in both Carolinas and have branches located in all five major metropolitan markets.

Send resume to hr@fastenersupply.com